

ENTERTAINMENT. GOSSIP. LIFE.

Introducing the OK! TV Correspondents

Shandi Finnessey is a former Miss USA and Dancing with the Stars contestant as well as a highly sought after motivational speaker and international model. Her current credits include serving as host for several GSN game shows and co-hosting the Ultimate Blackjack Tour on CBS. (Based in LA)

Julie Alexandria has hosted shows for networks such as MTV, Spike, CBS, and Fox. An accomplished voiceover artist and Sideline Reporter for College Football and Major League Baseball, she lives and breathes pop culture, celebrity gossip, fashion and sports, and truly understands social TV. (Based in NYC)

Alex Miranda, a Miami native, spent two years hosting The Morning Blend, a local Arizona talk show. In the past, he has hosted a reality dating show for CBS and was a host for Plum TV. Alex also worked for SiriusXM Radio. (Based in NYC)

Mayleen Ramey is truly living the OK! TV lifestyle. She can be seen hosting her travel show on Tennis Channel, covering events for Red Bull, as well as in-studio at E! Entertainment. Previously, she was also a VJ for MTVu and a regular red carpet correspondent. (Based in Las Vegas)

Ron Pitts, former Green Bay Packers and Buffalo Bills Defensive Back, brings his sports and fitness knowledge to the OK! TV team and will be based in Los Angeles. Ron spent many years with NFL on FOX, hosted the show Under the Helmet and Discovery's Destroyed in Seconds, among others. (Based in LA)